活動當天，除了華園臺灣華語文學習中心成人班的學員及駐英國代表處人員之外，還有當地主流中學和小學的校長及教師、當地政府公共部門消防局及警察局人員以及當地主要華人社群會長及領導人，都是華園平時無論對外語言或文化課程合作或是與當地大型活動緊密結合的當地主流社群。此次活動不僅為華園臺灣華語文學習中心帶來一場臺灣美食饗宴和深度的臺灣美食教學，也在當地主流社會，發揚台灣文化，為台灣發光。

以下是肯特最大主流媒體報社的報紙報導。中文版的報導有中央社和駐英國代表處媒體僑務電子報，肯特消防局及警察局也分享在他們的媒體通訊。

Taiwanese Gourmet Cuisine International Tour Brings Taste of Taiwan to Canterbury

On September 28th 2024, Taiwan Centre for Mandarin Learning in the UK – Chinese Learning Paradise, led by Headmistress Crystal Tseng, hosted the 2024 International Tour of Taiwanese Gourmet Cuisine in Canterbury. This exclusive event was the chefs' only stop in the UK during their European-African world tour, showcasing Taiwan's rich culinary heritage.

Sponsored by the Taiwanese government, the event featured live cooking demonstrations by two of Taiwan's top-ranked chefs. The culinary masters prepared seven traditional Taiwanese dishes: General Tso's Chicken, Golden Kimchi, Tomatoes in Plum Sauce, Taiwanese Steamed Glutinous Rice, Three-Cup Basil Mushroom, Taiwanese Sausages, and Crispy Cheese Milk Triangles for dessert.

The event kicked off with a traditional Taiwanese folk fan dance, performed by staff members, setting the tone for an immersive cultural experience.

Among the distinguished attendees were representatives from local mainstream schools, local community groups and government public sectors, including: Mr Shih-Chih Chen - Director of the Taipei Representative Office in the UK; Mr Paul Pollard - Headteacher of Simon Langton Girls' Grammar School; Mr Tom Hunt and Ms Melissa Davies - senior management team members of Blean Primary School; Tarn Clark and Marieke Starling - members of the Canterbury Fire and Rescue Service and Kent Police; and Mr. Frank Hao - minister of Canterbury Chinese Christian Church.

During the demonstration, the chefs expertly explained each dish, captivating the audience. Guests expressed their admiration, praising the organisers for presenting such a unique and memorable experience, and wished for further opportunities to explore Taiwan's vibrant food culture in the future.
